

Welcome to the 46th Annual Telly Awards Council

About The Telly Awards and our Judging Council

The Telly Awards honor excellence in video and television across all screens. Founded in 1979, we receive over 13,000 entries globally from 6 continents and all 50 states.

Telly Award winners represent work from some of the most respected advertising agencies, television stations, production companies and publishers from around the world.

The Telly Awards Judging Council is our diverse judging body of over 250 executives from television networks, production companies, global agencies, immersive content studios, and streaming platforms around the world.

Judging Process & Criteria

■ Limited Number of Reviews

Each Judge is asked to judge up to 60 pieces of content.

■ Multiple Reviewers

Each piece is served to multiple members of the council assigned to that media type, and only marked complete once the threshold of reviews is met.

■ Algorithmic Rules

We worked with the international voting experts at The Center for Election Science to establish the judging procedures and rules. The algorithm prioritizes which work is scored next by figuring the probability of whether one more judge score will push it either above or below the cutoff. It also normalizes judges' scores to account for different scoring tendencies.

■ Conflicts Of Interest

Judges may not vote for any entry with which they have a conflict of interest.

■ Where Will I Be Listed On The Site?

All members of the Judging Council are listed on the website, but we never disclose the names of the judges who review a particular entry or allow entrants direct access to the judges. We do this to protect Council members from any potential conflicts or negative interaction, particularly if the work is not selected for recognition.

■ Can I Still Submit My Work?

Being a judge does not preclude you or your team from submitting work to the competition. There are mechanisms in place to allow judges to mark a submission as a conflict of interest if they are involved in the work in any way.

■ How Can I Recommend A Judge For The Competition?

We have a nomination call in January each year. We send you an email and you provide details of who you'd like to recommend.

■ How Can I Recommend Work For The Competition?

Each year we collaborate with our Council to crowdsource work that members find inspiring. Judges can recommend work via this Google Form at any time.
