Commemorate Your Achievement

The Telly Award is one of the most sought-after awards by industry leaders, from large international media companies to local production companies and ad agencies. Being a Telly winner places you among the best in video and television across all screens. This is your opportunity to recognize that achievement.

About The Telly Award

Each Telly statuette is handmade by industry-leading craftsmen. Nothing is more impressive in your office, conference room, studio, or mantle, and there is no better honor for your client or your team. The Telly statuette is a lasting way to promote your work without having to say a word.
